Create a webpage about your hometown like the example below.

Sometown, USA

Location

Sometown is located 50 miles west of another town in Somestate.

About

Weather

It's warm all year.

Population

Around 25,000 people call Sometown home.

Sports

Basketball and football are popular sports in Sometown.

Things To Do

- Fishing
- Hiking
- See the sites

Your webpage must meet the following requirements:

1. Saved in a file called index.html.
2. Specifies an appropriate webpage title with `<title>` tags.
3. Uses `<h1>` tags containing the hometown name followed by 3 sections, each using `<section>` tags.
4. The 1st section should contain a heading in `<h2>` tags entitled "Location". A single paragraph should briefly describe the town's location.
5. The 2nd section should contain a heading in `<h2>` tags entitled "About". Create at least 3 subsections that each use `<section>` tags with `<h3>` headings. Each subsection should have a single paragraph describing something about your hometown.
6. The 3rd section should contain a heading in `<h2>` tags entitled "Things To Do". Create an unordered list of interesting things to do in your hometown.

Instructions:

- Add comments wherever required, Should follow HTML comments format
- Follow HTML best practices
- Your commit message should be meaningful
- Your pull request should have meaningful description
- Reachout to your mentor if required